Hon. H. D. Flood made a wonderfully fine speech here on the 11th. It was conservative to a degree and yet he scored the Republican party for its inconsistencies and he showed up the two factors "The Lily White" and "The Lily Black" just in the colors in which they stand before the people. Alluding to Col. Henry Anderson being ashamed of Virginians he said that on the 8th day of November Virginians would show the Colonel that they are ashamed of him. Mr. Flood in a timely address that was listened to with close attention.

A trader told me he did not know of anyone who made sale of one single horse on court day, but there was a lot of swooping done. I sold two fat steers to a dealer at about 4 cents a pound and a veal calf about the same time at 12 cents. Beef dressed was sold here as low as six cents a pound during the warm spell last week.

Ripe tobacco has cured up a good color and with the coming of a season for handling it, the market is apt to be glutted at first as money is scarce. It is nothing unusual for the banks to write to prospective customers asking for their patronage but 3% is what most banks offer though some of the local banks are offering 4% interest.

Mr. Willie Green is building a pretty bungalow at Mr. Vinco. Sheriff W. T. Snoddy has moved his family to the place he bought from Mr. Haskins.

The Rogers Coston marriage took place here on the 12th. Rev. John L. Rogers, a brother of the bride, assisted by Rev. C. M. Barrell performed the ceremony. Those from a distance who attended the wedding were Mr. Byro Rogers, of Oklahoma; Miss Coston, of North Carolina; and Miss Babington, of N. C.
